Frequently Asked Questions

What are Federal Access Charges?

These are charges proposed and authorized by the Federal Communications Commission (FCC), for providing access to, and maintenance of, the local network.

What is the Federal Excise Tax?

This tax is mandated by the federal government. They are imposed on local and wireless telephone services.

What is the Universal Service Fee?

In May of 1997, the Federal Communications Commission (FCC) adopted rules that mandated all telecommunications carriers pay into a federal program called the Universal Service Fund (USF). This fund helps provide affordable telecommunications services for low-income customers and customers in rural areas. It also provides discounts on Internet access for eligible schools, libraries and rural healthcare providers.
